

Salisbury & South Wilts Canine Society. 27/08/17

Thank you to the committee for the invitation to judge, A beautiful sunny day if a tad warm for the dogs. Thank you to the exhibitors who excepted my placings in good grace.

Cocker spaniels. P, D/B. 1st Howletts Zokova Pure Obsession Following Jorlakee 8 month old Black and Tan dog well off for bone in good coat and condition. Well placed ear set leading into a strong powerful neck. Level top line standing and on the move, well placed tail, and good bend of stifle, B.P puppy group 4 2nd Howletts Jorlakee We Will Rock You Blue roan 7 month dog, again well off for bone, super head and eye shape, correct ear set, good top line , good strong outline when stood typical cocker on the move, lost out today on maturity which will come. J. D/B. Kews, Lujesa Starman at Wyllyview Black D. Beautiful head and eye shape, good ear placement strong neck and shoulders level top line standing and when moving. The best movement of the day bustling out, typical merry cocker good bend of stifle nice level tail set in excellent coat and condition.

BOB. O/B 1st, Grist's Kasordon Wildfire A compact cobby golden girl short coupled with a nice bend of stifle correct head and eye, good tail set in good coat, RBOB. 2nd Howlett & Warringtons Zakova Pure Gold longer in back than winner nice head and eye. Well boned with correct tail placement, missed out today on her movement.

Dave Boden